BULKELEY HIGH SCHOOL EXPLOSION UPDATE

- *Bulkeley High School will be closed on Friday, January 27th, 2006.
- *Students from the five other schools that were dismissed today are expected to be back in class, as long as CL&P has all power restored.
- *Power has been restored to the Maple Avenue area.
- *CL&P says the rest of the power is expected to be back on line by 8 p.m.
- *3 CL&P workers injured, one initially transported to Hartford Hospital and then to the Bridgeport Burn Unit.
- *Air quality and other testing are underway and the results are expected within a 24-hour period.
- *Mayor Perez has been kept up to date on this situation and is returning from the Conference of Mayors in Washington D.C. late tonight.
